United States Circuit Court.
HONORABLE JUDGE WALKER.

Monday—On motion of Hon. J. H. Drummond, F. W. Chase and John O. P. Wheelwright were admitted to practice in the United States Circuit Court.

Brief Notings.

Election returns will be bulletined to-night at the Press office as fast as received. Probably the result in Massachusetts will be definitely ascertained before nine o'clock.

Five day yesterday. Mercury 32° at sunrise, 57° at noon, 48° at sunset; wind west, light.
Mr. Frank Curtis is in town for a few days.
Col. B. L. Little, formerly provost marshal of Maine is at the Falmouth hotel.

Mr. Franklin Simmons, the well known sculptor, is visiting Portland.

It was officer Hanson, not officer Harmon who arrested Mussey, the alleged burglar.

Judge Gould and Marshal Andrews went to Boston yesterday, and Mayor Deering and Chairman Winslow go today.

A large number of citizens left for Boston last night, and more will follow, to observe the incidents of election day in that city.

Mr. W. G. Twombly has a woman's shoe, brought to this city from the West by a Portland lady, which measures 15 1/2 inches long by 6 inches broad.

A man named Joseph Sinclair was arrested yesterday for stealing a lantern, lot of rope and other property from Mr. Jenks at Great Chebeague Island.

Edward Matthews, the Hockiss Falls correspondent of the Troy, (N. Y.) Northern Budget, is spending a few days in the city at the City Hotel.

Yesterday forenoon the tug C. A. Belknap went into the Eastern Railroad bridge, and damaged it so that the trains were unable to cross for several hours, while repairs were being made.

The Tucker printing house has printed the Grassman some neat programmes and order of dances, which are got up very handsomely in a unique style. The covers are indented with designs in bronze.

Manjoo Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of this city, entertained Westcott Lodge of Yarmouth last evening. About thirty visitors were present, coming and returning by special train over the Grand Trunk.

Portland Teachers' Association.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

MORSELEY'S INVITATION.

McOreley's Invitation drew a good sized audience at Portland Theatre last evening.

The play is full of fun, and contains all the comedy elements, even to the Chinaman.

The principal characters are Alderman Mosley and his wife Bridget, these parts being assumed by Messrs. James Kearney and J. H.
Ryan. All the members of the company are good, and are fair singers. Interspersed throughout the play are the songs, "The Market on Saturday Night," "Never Drink Behind the Bar," "The Old Father Deed," "The Middy Day," "The Golden Chord,"
"The Bunch of Berries," "The Salvation Army," and "The Character of a Man." Two later were especially well rendered, and received several encores. "The Bunch of Berries" in parts, but there is considerable in it to laugh at. The music by the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Geo. P. Brennan, was very fine, and the xylophone soloist Master Eddie King was one of the features of the evening.
The play will be repeated this evening.

FRANK MAYO.

To-night the eminent actor, Frank Mayo, will appear at City Hall for the benefit of the Brown's Light Artillery, and his famous creation of "Davy Crockett." The drama itself is rich in beauty, sentiment and noble inspirations. Its central figure is that of the honest, courageous and chivalric Crockett, and its outline in substance narrates the stirring story of his life. The play is a masterpiece of admirable nothing to condemn. Mr. Mayo has allied himself to the part that consummate art which baffles the endeavor of the critic to discover a flaw, and his admirers continually find new beauties in the performance which he so admirably assumes. His support is said to be in every respect commendable. The members of the company will officiate as usual.

LYCERN THEATRE.

There was a good bill presented at the Lyceum last night. John P. Fenton and Johnnie Mack returned from last week and were comers are Miss Kittie Sharp in her specialty, entitled "The Active Girl," and Miss Annie Hindle, the male impersonator in her brilliant changes. Mr. Tony Williams also appeared as usual, and the first part was by O'Brien in the laughable after piece, "Our New Candidate," and Johnnie Mack pleased the audience as "Jake" in the negro act, "Bless the Baby." Mr. Clark J. Elton is now leader of the orchestra.

CONCERT AND READING.

The concert and reading to be given at Pine Street Church, Tuesday evening, should be well patronized. Miss Caroline Roach, the eloquentist, and the Boston Advertiser says of her: "The lecture was prefaced by a character reading by Miss Caroline Roach of Malden, entitled 'How Samanah Allen came to the Election.' The personation was well rendered, there was no attempt at caricature or ridicule, but a fine conception and reading was in fine taste."

IMPERIAL DRESDEN BAND.

The Imperial Dresden Band, will form the center of the rockbridge course, to-morrow evening at City Hall. Their playing is highly commended by the Boston papers where they have been giving concerts in the foreign exhibition building. A few seats remain at Stockbridge's.

THE OPERA IN NEW YORK.

The Boston Journal correspondent thus sums up the first week of the opera in New York: On Monday night, when certain at last fell upon that unfortunate performance of "Parsifal," which so much had been expected, Mme.
Nilsson, I am told upon excellent authority, cried bitterly and said that she had experienced the bitterest disappointment of her artistic life.
She had failed to establish any kind of influence upon the audience, and she felt that the failure of the performance was due to her shortcomings. There had been elements of brightness about the performance, as when, for instance, she sang the "Prelude" to "Parsifal," the whole enthusiasm which followed that piece was more a tribute to the popular woman than to the singer. The performance after the first two acts was a failure, comparatively, and was overshadowed as such. Down at the Academy the house was crowded, to be sure, but a glance at the audience was enough to convince an expert that free tickets had been scattered where they would do most good.
I doubt if it is the first night at the old house, withstanding Gershwitz's popularity, was a successful one from the box-office point of view.
Thus at one house there was an audience which paid its money more to be present at the opening of the house than because of the music, and at the other an audience largely of invited guests.

On Wednesday Mme. Marcella Sembrich, one of Mr. Abbey's new stars, appeared as Lucia, and carried the house by storm. Not within the last generation, had such a success as this of Sembrich in the mad scene of Lucia, been achieved. The singing was
